

PERILS

Threatened Irish Home Rule Bill Are Thought Past.

Perfect Tranquillity Marked the Passing Upon the First Reading.

Fixed Determination of Liberals to See the Bill Through.

ORANGE THREATS ARE IGNORED

All Liberals and home rulers will separate for a brief vacation in high spirits, cables T. P. O'Connor, the Irish leader in the British Parliament. This temper in sharp contrast with that of a few weeks ago. The Marconi revelations when first announced seemed destined to bring about the crashing fall of at least two Ministers and possibly the downfall of the whole Ministry. The woman's suffrage bill presented many perils, including an open division of opinion among the Liberal Ministers themselves. Long and excited debates caused a derangement of the whole programme for the session and a possible peril to home rule and other great Ministerial measures. Similarly on the continent the black specter of unemployment seemed to be finally descending upon the horizon. Simultaneously the prospect of a big deficit in the budget portended the necessity of new taxation, and with new taxation, added to all the other burdens of the Ministry, might have proved the final straw to break the camel's back. Every one of these perils now has disappeared.

Once more the Irish party proved the decisive factor in deciding the great British struggle, as without the Irish vote the woman's bill would have been carried by a majority of one, instead of being defeated by the majority of forty-seven. Militancy shows some signs of fiercer vitality since the rejection of the bill, but these are only flickerings of the dying flame against Home Secretary McKenna's vigorous proceedings against the suffragettes and the breaking up of their conspiracy. A return to normal may now be expected, and then the woman's movement again may begin to recover lost ground. But no suffrage bill now is possible in the present Parliament. Lloyd-George's daring and resource enabled him to produce a budget without new taxation, the Chancellor trusting to the unexampled expansion of the trade to make up the deficit during the coming year. Finally the war clouds have disappeared from the European sky.

Divisions among the Tory leaders on the tariff show an enormous preponderance of talent in the Ministry over its chief opponents. The disappearance of Balfour, the great and continued prosperity of the country, success with such daring measures as old age pensions and the insurance act, as well as unbroken good luck, have contributed to obtain this result. One main cause, however, is the fixed determination of all Liberals to see home rule through. This determination is a bond of steel which keeps all sections of the coalition inflexibly and irresistibly together, which enables them to laugh at difficulties and ignore scandalous campaigns, and also to reject every entanglement, such as woman's suffrage, which might stand in the path of home rule.

This is the key to the whole situation, and this supreme factor now is expected with perfect hope to keep the Government in power and all the progressive forces together until the Irish Parliament is re-established and placed on an impregnable rock. Ulster, which has been silent for months, is beginning to get restive over being so ignored, and an active campaign was started lately once more to frighten English opinion by announcements of secret drillings and many other preparations for civil war.

Sir Edward Carson will spend the present vacation in an attempt to blow the ashes of Orange passion once more into a flame. This movement may be allowed to go on some time longer, but when the Government strikes it will strike as hard as necessary as it did with the suffragettes. England is not to be cowed out of doing the right thing by such threats. The perfect tranquillity of the English mind in the face of Orange threats found final expression in passing upon the first reading of the home rule bill this week under a parliamentary rule which precluded all speeches and all divisions.

QUETLY WEDDED.

James McGill and Miss Ruth McCarthy, prominent in musical circles and popular in Catholic society, were quietly married with a nuptial mass Wednesday morning at the Cathedral, the Rev. P. M. J. Rock being the officiating clergyman. Both have a legion of friends, and had not their secret been so well guarded the Cathedral would have been thronged with admirers and well wishers. The couple were attended by Joseph McGill, brother of the groom, and Miss Margaret Norton, and only near relatives were present. Immediately following the ceremony the happy couple left for a honeymoon trip to Asheville, N. C.

and after June 1 will be at home to their friends at 1724 Rosewood avenue, where they will go to house-keeping. The bride is the daughter of Dennis McCarthy, West Breckinridge street, and a sister of William McCarthy, and has always been a favorite in her social set. For both their friends wish a long life of wedded bliss and success.

IRISH POET.

Judge Matt O'Doherty Has Tribute For Thomas Moore.

Designating Thomas Moore as one of the greatest bards of the last century, Judge Matt O'Doherty at the Louisville Free Public Library on Monday night delivered a stirring address on the great poet and the conditions in Ireland which were responsible for some of the poems he wrote. The address was preceded by a reading from Tenyson's works with explanations by Dr. H. A. Cottell, President of the Louisville Literary Club. Judge O'Doherty declared the accusation that the poet wrote for the aristocracy and the drawing-room was without foundation. He called him a teacher and a scholar of Europe and in connection with this statement said Ireland was far superior to England intellectually. "Ireland's latest has suffered England in the great deal which has been waged before the bar of human opinion. The right of the Irish people to liberty has been recognized by the greatest English statesmen and the democratic people of England are now trying to reciprocate for what Ireland has been given by Ireland, without which few if any franchises would have been secured for Ireland," the speaker declared. In concluding Judge O'Doherty said Moore has been a religious poet as well as a prophet and had risen to his greatest height when writing his songs of defiance and prophecy.

GANG BUSY.

Editor Brann's Opinion of Menace's Falsifying Editor.

At the close of a revival by Billy Sunday last week at South Bend, Ind., an attempt was made by some of the Menace fanatics to flood the town with copies of the Fifty Menace, but was nipped in the bud by the city authorities, who threatened to arrest the distributors if they persisted in their attempt to start a religious war in that heretofore peaceful little city. Here is the latest from Brann's pen, expressing his opinion of the unfrocked minister Walker and his dirty little sheet:

"As I write, there lies before me a great pile of Walker's paper—reeking with slime, slander and falsehood. They are filled with lies about priests, lies about homes of the Good Shepherd, lies about the Little Sisters of the Poor, lies about Bishops, lies about Archbishops, Cardinals and Popes, lies about Catholics in general and Catholic politicians in particular. Big lies, little lies, foolish lies, insane lies—lies larded with malice—lies belied by ignorance—lies shameful and shameless—lies black, blue, green and speckled—rotten lies—barefaced lies—single, double and triple jointed lies—lies distorted and twisted—lies old and new—disseminated and unadulterated lies—lies born of hate, prejudice and bigotry—domestic and imported lies—lies borrowed, stolen, invented and created by the genius of mendacity, together with every other species of damnable lies ever known on earth or in hell, and all employed by Walker for the purpose of deceiving honest Protestants and making them hate their Catholic neighbors and friends."

FATHER ROELL'S JUBILEE.

Father Roell, who is now rector of St. Andrew's church at Richmond, was ordained at St. Mainrad's in 1888, served nine years at St. Mary's before being transferred to Richmond.

WANT JOINT PICNIC.

At the meeting of Division 4, A. O. U. Monday evening at Bertrand Hall the question of a joint picnic of all the divisions was suggested and the delegates to the County Council were instructed to advocate same at the meeting of the board last night. The Visiting Committee reported Pat McGuire as still laid up at St. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital and that Thomas Martin had entirely recovered from his recent illness. County President W. J. Connelly was present, and on being called upon by President John J. Hennessy in a few well chosen remarks expressed his heartfelt appreciation of the handsome wedding present given him by Division 4.

TRINITY COUNCIL.

Rev. Father Raffo to Lecture Next Monday Night.

The Literary Committee of Trinity Council, Y. M. I., has in store a rare treat for the members Monday night, when the Rev. Charles P. Raffo will deliver a lecture that all will be anxious to hear. Father Raffo is one of the most eloquent and earnest speakers among the clergy of the Louisville diocese, and his subject, "Where Did You Get Your Bible?" will be both instructive and interesting and prove an intellectual treat that should be appreciated. There was a good attendance at the meeting Monday night. President Ecker kept things moving and all were amused with the wit and humor of John Cunliffe, the council comedian and baseball captain. Very soon the Building Committee will have all plans and details ready for the new annex, which is now expected will be erected before the winter season sets in. Trinity's baseball team reported that they had won their first game, and so enthused were their rooters that they are now negotiating for a place in one of the local leagues. The Social Club announced a moonlight excursion would be given during the coming summer.

THANKSGIVING

Services For Pope's Recovery and Illumination at Night.

A solemn Te Deum was celebrated in St. Peter's at 8 o'clock on Sunday by Cardinal Rampolla in thanksgiving for the recovery of the Pope. Thousands attended. All the churches were illuminated during the evening, and at St. Peter's 14,000 lamps were used. The celebration was a magnificent and colorful one. The center of illumination was an outline of Constantine celebrating the jubilee of the freedom of the church.

RECENT DEATHS.

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at the Sacred Heart church over the remains of Edward Dalley, who had attained the great age of eighty-six years. Though born in Ireland, the deceased lived a long and useful life in this country, and was respected by all who knew him. He is survived by one sister, Mrs. Anna Harkins, 1415 West Broadway, and several grandchildren.

The funeral of Joseph Boone, who succumbed Monday night at the home of his mother, Mrs. T. E. Boone, 317 East Broadway, was held Wednesday morning from St. Mary Magdalen's church. He was a well known salesman and son of the late Capt. T. E. Boone, a Union veteran. Besides his mother he leaves one sister, Miss Edith Boone, and three brothers, Thurman, Will and Murray Boone, all of this city.

Many friends were deeply grieved when they learned of the death last Friday of William O'Brien, aged fifty-two, at the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Thomas O'Brien, 2618 Magazine street. His death was due to illness contracted while rendering assistance to victims of the recent flood. He is survived by his wife, a daughter, Miss Catherine O'Brien, and a brother, Michael O'Brien, of California. The funeral was held Monday morning from the Cathedral of the Assumption.

Wednesday morning requiem mass was celebrated over the remains of a life-long member of St. Vincent de Paul's church, who passed away Sunday evening at his home, 1221 South Shelby street. Deceased was a promoter of the St. Vincent de Paul Society and a faithful member of the Knights of Columbus. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Schwellers; three brothers, James, John and Henry Schwellers, and a sister, Mrs. J. Goss, to whom is tendered the sympathy of their many friends.

MOURN HIS DEATH.

Throughout the entire city people mourn the death of Frank Walter, of the Clay-street Brewery, which occurred Monday night at his home, 1015 Bardstown road. Frank Walter was born in Louisville fifty-two years ago and was one of our most widely known and highly respected citizens. His father, the late Conrad Walter, established the Clay-street Brewery in 1858, which after his death was conducted by the sons, John and Frank Walter, both now dead. The deceased was a member of the Gambrinus Society, the Concordia Singing Society, St. Joseph's Orphan Society, St. Martin's church and other organizations, and was an unostentatious donor to all charitable and public movements. He is survived by a brother, Henry Walter, a street supervisor for the city, and a sister, Mrs. Josephine Kleier, another sister, Mrs. Theresa Kleier, died March 25. The funeral was held from St. Martin's church and was one of the largest that has ever been seen there. By his death the poor have lost a generous friend and Louisville a public spirited and exemplary citizen.

EVENING POST

Makes Vile Attack On Members of Present General Council.

Article Filled With Deliberate Misrepresentations and Falsehoods.

Should Designate Louis Seelbach As Keeper of Corner Saloon.

DR. MECHLING'S SPLENDID RACE

Characteristic of its natural venom and with its habitual disregard for truth, the Evening Post published a bitter and dastardly attack on the present members of the General Council on Monday of this week, principally because they had just voted to award the city printing to the Post's rival as an afternoon paper, the meanness and vile insinuations contained in the article being ample justification of the statement of Congressman A. O. Stanley and Campbell Cantrill, the first stating that the Post was a mongrel organ, while the latter stated that the issuing of a publication of the Post's caliber was a disgrace to the fair name of the State. One of our great writers states that if the devil ever laughs it is at hypocrites, they being his greatest dupes, and if this holds good Satan must enjoy one long continuous chuckle at the antics of the Post and its editor. Here are some of the glaring errors which were contained in the article, and the Post knew it was deliberately misrepresenting the facts:

Councilman Jerry Kling, of the Fourth ward, it stated had a brother in the detective department, this being false, as there is no Detective Kling in the department.

Alvin Rosenberg, the prospective Councilman from the Fourth ward, it was stated, conducted a chile parlor on Preston street. Another deliberate lie, as Mr. Rosenberg has been with the Louisville Lighting Company over ten years.

H. B. Benson, candidate for Councilman from the Fifth ward, it was also stated, has a brother member of the police force. Another utter falsehood, as Mr. Benson has no brother.

Councilman Thomas J. Dolan, from the Twelfth ward, was reported as city salesman for the Pitta Lino and Cement Company, while everyone knows that Mr. Dolan is with the New York Life Insurance Company.

One glaring and attempted misrepresentation was in the case of Councilman D. B. Coleman, proprietor of the Broadway Hotel, at Ninth and Broadway, the Post stating that he conducted a saloon, and did not even mention the hotel was an adjunct. Working on this theory the Post failed to be consistent when it did not speak of Louis Seelbach, candidate for Park Commissioner, as saloonkeeper, Fourth and Walnut.

Deliberate sneers were contained in the article for men who had ever been employed as bartenders, mentioning Fred Schwenker, the present Alderman and labor leader, and William H. Karst, at present in the painting business, the writer possibly overlooking the fact that all men were not born in a position to belong to the Pandemonia Club or fortunate enough to marry into wealthy families, thereby avoiding manual labor or even tending bar for a livelihood. Always pursuing a hypocritical policy, while manuevering under sham reform methods, the Evening Post has never spared either the living or dead from vile attacks or insinuations, and even when exposed, as in the present instance, will not make amends unless compelled to do so.

Strong candidates are in the field for the Democratic nominations and many new faces will soon be seen in public life. One of the strong aspirants now in the field is Dr. E. Mechling, who has opened the eyes of some of the oldest politicians by his aggressive campaign for Corcoran, the Doctor's large following behind him in Democratic circles leaving no stone unturned in the effort to give him the nomination.

CLASS OF FIFTY.

At St. Michael's church, Brook street, a class of fifty children will make their first communion tomorrow morning. Rev. Father Martin O'Connor, the pastor, will be the celebrant of the high mass, which takes place at 7:30 o'clock, and the fine choir will be augmented for the occasion. In the afternoon at 3:30 the Right Rev. Malon O'Donoghue will administer the sacrament of confirmation. The friends of St. Michael's are cordially invited to both services.

ENJOY THE RACES.

Delightful weather and a large attendance mark the most successful race meeting of the Louisville Jockey Club now in progress and which will end a week from today. Over 30,000 people witnessed Donerale, Tom Hughes' great race horse, capture the Derby, and since early race run has been exciting and full of interest, a number of long standing records have been broken. Another record breaking attendance is looked for this afternoon to see the Clark handicap run, for which the stars of the turf are entered. Every day next week there will be a feast ure race, beginning with the Bashford Manor purse on Monday and followed by the Churchill Downs handicap. Frank Peir stakes Juvenile stakes, Louisville bandicap and Gentlemen's cup, and on Saturday the Kentucky Oaks. The sport has been high class and reflects credit on President Grainger, Manager Matt Winn, Judge Price and their associates.

CHORAL UNION.

Grand Sunday Night Concert For Benefit of Orphans.

The Louisville Catholic Choral Union is an organization that richly deserves the appreciation and unqualified support of lovers of good music. Organized a year ago, its first concert was given for the Boys' Home, and it was a signal success both musically and financially. Tomorrow night at the Shubert Masonic Theater the Choral Union will give its second concert, when the glorious oratorio of "Elijah" will be produced, and for a cause dear to every heart—the children of the St. Thomas, St. Vincent and St. Joseph orphan homes. Under the brilliant directorship of Prof. Anthony Molenz, the Choral Union will to its utmost tomorrow evening, to make an impression upon the public and add to the reputation already gained.

The soloists, as already announced, will be Marcus Kellerman, of New York, baritone; Miss Carrie Fiske and Miss Freda Deercor, sopranos; Miss Virginia Shaffer, contralto; Edward G. Hill, tenor. In the interests of the orphans and in the welfare of the Catholic Choral Union, it is hoped that Sunday evening the Masonic Theater will be filled to overflowing and that the audience will be pleased with the arduous labor of love that the union has so faithfully been working for these many months past.

TO BE GO.

Mackin Council to Have a Big Outing at Stower Grove.

Following reports of Will Rihu and the Social Club at the Monday night meeting Mackin Council decided to have an all-day free outing for its members and their families some time during the month of July. Stower's Grove, on the Eighteenth street car line, will be secured for the occasion. President Adams occupied the chair and the business was quickly dispatched, after which Charles Parsons was introduced and delivered an address that was appreciated by all present. Only one member, Raymond Riddle, now remains on the sick list, and he was reported improving. The Social Club will arrange for the coming outing and will include a number of races and outdoor sports of all kinds, for which nice prizes will be hung up. Mackin Council has never had a summer entertainment of this kind, and it is expected that the affair will be productive of good results and will add to the popularity of this great young men's society.

NEEDED AT HOME.

S. O. S. Call Should Be Sent Baptist Missionary Brothers.

For the last several months the Baptist publications have been gloating over their progress in what they term "winning home from the Pope," and their missionaries have been given carte blanche in proselytizing Catholics by fair means or foul near the Papal throne, and at present are busy raising a fund here of $75,000 to establish a Baptist University in Rome. Now judging from the tone of this week's local publication, some of these good brothers are needed at home to check the drift to the Catholic church. The article is as follows:

"We hear of the great danger to the country of the growing influence of the Catholics. That danger is great, no doubt, but is nothing in comparison to the danger to the church of the growth of Catholic ideas and practices. That these are very attractive to the unregenerate we all know. The carnal heart does not like spiritual religion nor simplicity in worship. The spectacular appeals to it. The idea is under-mingling all true worship that men are to be pleased. God is left out in his own churches. More and more Catholic ideas and practices are making their way. If you doubt it, take a Baptist paper of this spring and one of twenty years ago and see the difference in regard to Easter, Good Friday, etc., etc. May God have mercy on us and stop our drifting."

FATHER MENSA'S FIRST MASS.

The Rev. Guido Mensa, who was ordained to the holy priesthood on Thursday, will celebrate his first mass tomorrow morning at St. Charles Borromeo church, Twenty-seventh and Chestnut, at 10:30 o'clock. Father Mensa is a brother of the Rev. S. J. Mensa, pastor of the Sacred Heart church at Hickman, who will be here to act as first assistant at the high mass. The service will be preached by the Rev. Charles P. Raffo, and it is safe to say the church will be crowded. During the services the newly ordained priest will bestow his blessing on all present, a favor always appreciated by devout Catholics.

DANGERS

For Women That Lurk Behind the So-Called Suffrage Movement.

Mrs. Dodge Says the Race Will Degenerate If Movement Continues.

She Asserts That Morality Is Affected by Woman's Dress.

LIBERTY TURNED INTO LICENSE

In a striking statement made public at the national headquarters of the Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage in Washington last Sunday Mrs. Arthur M. Dodge, of New York, President of that association, used a new line of attack on the equal suffragists. She says: "In view of what is happening in various parts of the country, it is high time for every thinking man and woman to realize that back of the woman suffrage disturbance is the question of sex—or rather a distortion of the sex question." Starting from this point Mrs. Dodge develops her idea, and says that if the movement is not checked "it will degenerate the race."

"The only sure manner of estimating the real meaning or strength of the so-called suffrage movement," she continued, "is to see clearly the moves and underlying reasons back of it. The suffrage disturbance is in plain words a sex disturbance. Many women who are suffragettes do not realize this, but it is a fact nevertheless just as the tendency of some other women to take up foolish fancies, and unnecessary movements, is the result of that undisciplined and straining after artificial happiness and unnatural enjoyment which indicates an unsettled and an unsatisfactory state of mind. We who oppose woman suffrage are convinced that woman suffragettes support their cause because they view the whole situation in that way, and that they are in a state of natural anger. One morning in New York I heard a young woman discussing with great eloquence on how she and her sisters could improve the morals and manners of men if they were given the ballot. That evening this same girl was a fashionable dancer. She was dressed in an extremely décolleté fashion, and the way she danced and bared herself was suggestive, to say the least, I do not believe this girl ever realized that while her vote would be powerless in an election, the cut of her gown, the manner of her dancing and the words of her conversation could be made to have a tremendous influence for good among her friends, men and women, and thus throughout the whole community. She was misled, as many other women are, by the mirage that good morals and good manners can be legislated into men and women. Moral and manners are the fruit of women's minds, not the voting booth. And just so long as women clamor for political 'rights' and yet dress in garments that are the definition of had taste all the votes in the world will not change the trend of sentiment in society and throughout the whole population of the country."

"We are in the midst of a remarkable period of our history. There is more modesty in dress, more looseness in conversation and more impropriety in dancing than has ever been known to the American people. The line of social high society or among those who are in other conditions. Back of these revelations of the lowering of women's ideals and conduct there is the same reason as that which actuates the suffrage disturbance. There was a time not so long ago when young girls demanded more freedom and liberty, an escape from the close scrutiny of the home and watchful eye of the chaperon. They obtained this liberty, and suddenly we are now confronted with the realization of how terribly easy it may be for this liberty to be turned into license. In the same line of argument woman has sought a freedom unparalleled in the history of the world, having secured freedom and equality in the arts, in the industries and in commerce, she seeks what she calls a political liberty which would be perilously close to license. It is a pathological fact that women, as a sex, must respect and revere the divine mission of their sex, which is motherhood. The moment they outrage or distort or deny the purpose for which they were created they become shirkers and drones. Misdirected government is a bad thing, but the same line of argument can be relied on to correct it when ever necessary, but misdirected sex is a national tragedy, which if it is not checked will degenerate the race."

CELEBRATED ANNIVERSARY.

Wednesday was the tenth anniversary of the founding of the Catholic Woman's Club and home for Working Girls, located on Walnut street, and the day was appropriately celebrated by the friends of that deserving institution. The club is about to issue a souvenir book, containing a history of the organization and biographies of its officers. Miss Myra Burns, the matron, who has been with the club since it was founded, was in charge of open-house at the club house on Walnut street Wednesday.

WON'T WIN VOTES.

Turning the Public Library, the schools and the parks over to the Woman Suffragettes and kindred organizations for the expounding of their political and partisan propaganda will not win votes for the school bond issue. Public institutions should be closed to any and all selfish, partisan or sectarian gatherings. No single organization has claim to the exclusive use of any of them. By parceling out the library, schools and parks the public that maintains them will soon lose their control.

LOADED.

Andrew Carnegie's peace lure is loaded. The American people should remember the counsel of Washington: "To be prepared for war is one of the most effectual means of preserving peace." Supplied with ample funds and means of publicity, and operated through an uninformed pulp and through societies with formidable lists of members who know little of what their societies are made to stand for, the influence of the sham peace movement is being used against the most necessary measures of preparedness for defense and protection of our country.

JAPAN'S PROTEST.

The sympathy of all fair minded Americans is with California in its stand against Japanese aggression in that State, and public opinion is strong against President Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan conceding an inch to this yellow nation, whose victory over Russia has turned its head. Former Congressman Grove L. Johnson sums up California's protest in the following statement:

He says that the Japanese are immoral, clanish, dishonest and insolent, that they are increasing too fast and that they live un-American lives. He says they have no religion worthy of the name, that they have no holidays or rest days, that they are incessantly, twenty-four hours a day in shifts, and that they can undersell and outwork Americans. "They live huddled together in bunks and have no sanitary laws," says Mr. Johnson. "They are a corrupting influence on white women, even inducing the weaker to marry them. Once they obtain influence over a white woman she is reduced to the condition of a slave. The offspring is a wretched half-breed."

Getting down to what seems to be the real issue, that of land ownership. Mr. Johnson says: "They pay a large price for real estate and take possession. Immediately all contiguous property depreciates in value and they are enabled to buy it in cheap. They have bought land to within two blocks of the Capitol; they are practically in possession of all the fruit raising sections. They will not accept separate schools and have consequently driven hundreds of American children from our educational institutions."

Despite the bulky petition protesting against Sunday closing of Post-offices, the people of this country favor the present system, which gives the Postoffice Department and others one day out of the seven for needed rest. While those who favor the backward step are noisy they are not numerous.

The Catholic Sentinel, of Portland, Ore., is to be congratulated upon its splendid forty-third anniversary edition. There were eighty-two pages, every one of which was filled with reading and advertising matter of local and national interest.

From the tone of its editorials it is painfully evident that the three leading political parties must have forgotten Dick Knott and the Evening Post when planning for the coming campaign. This gives the candidates cause for rejoicing.

The British Parliament will reassemble May 27, and soon thereafter the Irish home rule bill will have its second reading. Present indications are that its passage will be prompt and decisive.

Trinity Sunday comes tomorrow. This should be remembered by those who have not yet made their Easter duty.

ATTORNEY SANDMANN.

Ben J. Sandmann, one of our brightest and most popular young men, was graduated with high honors last evening from the Jefferson School of Law, where for several years he has studied with perseverance for his profession. During his course in the Jefferson School he displayed a talent and acquired a legal knowledge that stamps him for a place in the front rank of the legal profession. For a number of years past Attorney Sandmann has been connected with the law department of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company, and has greatly benefited by that experience.

CATHOLIC KNIGHTS.

Delegates from thirty-nine States to the twelfth triennial convention of the Supreme Council of the Catholic Knights of America being held in Washington, D. C., abandoned serious work Wednesday and started on a round of recreation. A pilgrimage to the tomb of Washington at Mt. Vernon, followed by a dinner at a river resort, were two of the events on the programme. The delegates were received by President Wilson Thursday. The business of the council thus far has been transacted in executive session, but the most important was reserved for Friday's session. A full report of the proceedings will appear in next week's issue.

ST. BRIGID'S CHURCH.

With the fair weather of the past few weeks Rev. Father Jansen has pushed the work on the new St. Brigid's church at Baxter and Hepburn avenue. The handsome structure is now nearing completion, and the pastor has hopes that the dedication will take place during the month of July. Last week a handsome statue of St. Brigid was placed in position over the main entrance.

WATERS—LALLY.

The announcement by Mrs. John T. Waters, of Frankfort, of the engagement of her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Waters, to D. J. Lally, of Louisville, was received with much interest in both cities. The wedding is to occur the first of June and it will be a pretty church affair.

SIX MONTHS FOR TEN CENTS.

Just to introduce our child's magazine into your home we will send it to you for your boy or girl for six months for ten cents. The Child Apostle is a little Catholic magazine published monthly. Twenty-four pages filled with stories and pictures for children. Send us ten cents in coin or stamps for a six-months' trial subscription for your boy or girl. Address The Child Apostle, 1133 McCormick building, Chicago, Ill.

PICNIC AND REUNION.

The annual picnic and reunion of St. Leo's church, Highland Park, will be held Wednesday, August 6, on the church grounds. Combination prizes, with the list of handsome prizes to be disposed of, will be issued next week.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH.

Tomorrow morning at St. Paul's church a class of fifty will receive their first holy communion from the hands of the pastor, Rev. Thomas York, at the 8 o'clock mass. Next Monday afternoon Bishop O'Donoghue will visit St. Paul's and at 3 o'clock administer the sacrament of confirmation to a class of sixty, a number of whom are converts.

WELCOME HOME.

The Rev. Francis O'Connor, who has been away from the Louisville diocese nearly a year on leave of absence, has returned from New Mexico and stopped a week in Owensboro. He is now visiting his mother, and will be here for some time, having come to perform the marriage ceremony for his sister and Eugene McCarthy the early part of June at St. John's church.

LEXINGTON.

A class of fifty-one girls and boys will receive their first communion at St. Paul's church, Lexington, Sunday morning at 8 o'clock. The Rev. W. H. Curry will officiate at the services, which promise to be both beautiful and impressive.

FATHER LEONE COMING.

According to an Associated Press dispatch the Rev. Father Domiano Leone, of the Church of the Blessed Virgin of Pompeii, will leave Milwaukee. He has had an offer to become pastor of an Italian church in Louisville, which the Italians here promise to build should he decide to come. As his mother and the rest of the Leone family live here Father Leone said it is probable that he will accept.

To the Voters of the City of Louisville and County of Jefferson:

In view of the fact that the question of the eight-hour watch at the County Jail has been made an issue in this campaign, where no skilled labor is required except in the power plant, we, the undersigned officials and employees of the Jefferson County Jail, deem it but fair to let the public know the facts in connection with our service and our treatment at the jail. It is true we are serving under a straight watch system but Mr. Pfanz, who is one of the hardest working and most conscientious officials we know of, gives us one day off each week and in addition to this ten days' vacation each year, and when we are really sick and not able to perform our duty we are carried on the pay roll. Aside from this we were employed at a stated salary, but our wages have increased from 10 to 20 per cent. since our employment in January, 1910.

We are courteously treated and looked upon as gentlemen by him, and we can get the eight-hour watch if we want it. We shall cast our vote and use our influence for John R. Pfanz for Jailor, who is always working in the interest of the citizen and taxpayer of the city and county, and we kindly ask our friends to do the same.

LOYAL ORDER OF MOOSE.

THE ORDER FOR YOU TO JOIN

Most Popular Fraternal Beneficiary Order in the World.

The Loyal Order of Moose is a moral agent. The influence it exerts is more beneficial. Nothing is more beneficial. Nothing base or degrading is tolerated within its precincts, or by its members anywhere. The principles upon which it is founded and the teachings which it promulgates can not be otherwise than elevating and helpful.

No fraternal order in existence possesses a more beautiful or ennobling ritualistic ceremony. No man can take its vows and listen to its instructions without becoming a better citizen, a more devoted husband, a more affectionate parent.

The Loyal Order of Moose does not interfere with one's religious or political views. Political or sectarian discussions are not countenanced; but patriotism, obedience to law, equal rights and respect for the opinions of others are insisted upon. As one enters a lodge, so he departs—a free man.

In the broad sense of the word the Loyal Order of Moose is an aid to its members. If misfortune overtakes a brother, if sickness or accident or business reverse befall him, it extends the helping hand. For him it speaks the "Good Word," contributes to his purse and helps him to overcome difficulties.

For the professional and public man it is an aid to acquaintance, and to the business man it is a vital factor in publicity. Commercially speaking, it is an invaluable asset to mouth-to-mouth advertising, at the lowest possible expense.

The Loyal Order of Moose contends that a warm breakfast and a warm coat discounts advice on a cold morning. It lives in deeds, not words. It teaches charity, love and mutual aid.

In fine, the Loyal Order of Moose assists you in your work, aids you in your business, gives you pleasure in health, takes care of you when you are sick or injured, buries you when you die, and extends the helping hand to your wife and family.

Does any insurance company do these things?

One of the chief aims of the Loyal Order of Moose is to be progressive. Its rapid growth and large membership are due to the fact that the order is never allowed to grow stale and unattractive by adhering to forms and practices that the times may have ceased to approve. It is thoroughly up-to-date.

Louisville Lodge No. 5, Loyal Order of Moose, gives $7 a week, sickness or accident, $100 funeral; free medical attention to members and families. Dues seventy-five cents per month. For Moose free University, free Tuberculosis Sanatorium, free Home for Aged and Infirmed, only twenty-five cents quarterly. No assessments. Nonsectarian. Social and fraternal features.

The initiation fee of Louisville Lodge, for a short time, is $5. Later $25. Examination $1. Examiners—Dr. L. R. Veech, 3015 South Third street; Dr. Q. C. Kelly, 407 South Third street; Dr. J. L. Ewing, 1110 South First street, 310 West Breckinridge; Dr. B. Gaines, 721 West Jefferson.

thing interesting from the Hiber-therefore the officers request a full attendance of members.The meeting of Division 1 next Wednesday night will be both interesting and important. President Tarpey calls upon every member to be present, and it is to be hoped there will be a large attendance.

MINNEAPOLIS TODAY.

Hayden's Colonels will begin a three-game series at Minneapolis this afternoon and hard contests are expected, as Joe Cantillon has already realized that the Louisville team of today is not the same as last year, and that his team will be lucky to secure an even break, this being quite a radical difference from last season, when Louisville was only a few games played, while Indianapolis won even less, these two teams practically donating the pennant to Minneapolis. If Owner
Watson and Manager Hayden succeed in their endeavors to secure another hard hitting outfielder and a right-handed pitcher the fans may expect to see the Colonels hold onto a first division berth on this hard trip, which will continue until June 6.

What the Club Plan Is-- What It Means to You:

The Club Plan is an extended payment plan instituted purely and simply for the convenience of our patrons who wish to buy Household Goods, such as Furniture, Carpets, Rugs, etc.

When you join the Club Plan you are asked to pay 3 per cent. of the amount of your purchases for joining; for instance

The membership fee on a $25.00 purchase would be 75c.

The membership fee on a $50.00 purchase would be $1.50.

The membership fee on greater purchases would of course be in proportion.

You are then asked to pay 10 per cent. of your total purchase as the first payment. For instance, on a $25.00 purchase you pay $2.50 down in addition to the membership fee, making a total of $3.25. The goods are then delivered to you and you arrange to pay the balance in small weekly or monthly payments.

When you consider that goods bought on the Club Plan are purchased at our cash prices—whether special or regular—you will more clearly see that our membership fee is nothing in comparison with the additional cost installment houses place on their goods for the privilege of time payments.

FURNITURE, CARPETS, RUGS, HOUSE FURNISHINGS AND OTHER HOUSEHOLD GOODS ARE SOLD ON THE CLUB PLAN.

Any further information regarding the Club Plan will be cheerfully given by our salespeople or at the Credit office on the fifth floor.
